

HYDE PARK ESTATES - by Dennis J. Spada

I have been a tenant at Hyde Park Estates in historic Hyde Park, New York since October 2, 1987. Through the years, I found that living here has been simply remarkable; where convenience meets beauty, safety, security, and serenity.

Hyde Park Estates is a thoughtfully-designed, beautifully landscaped apartment complex encompassing seven separate two-story buildings that contain 70 well-maintained apartments. Hundreds of satisfied tenants have rented here over the past sixty years.

The apartments are located right along Route 9, adjacent to the historic President Franklin Delano Roosevelt Home and Library, is positioned perfectly between Poughkeepsie and Rhinebeck, and is close to the Hudson and Poughkeepsie Shopping Malls. From Hyde Park Estates going north on Route 9, there are many stores, dining, and entertainment areas. Going south, some of the schools and businesses are all within a twelve-minute drive; Culinary Institute of America, St. Francis and Vassar Hospitals, Marist, Vassar, and Dutchess County Community Colleges, the Poughkeepsie Train Station, and IBM.

Recently, Hyde Park Estates has come under new management, the ROCH CLUB MANAGEMENT CORPORATION, and many new changes and updates have taken place. The office is staffed with caring, friendly, and knowledgeable professionals who take pride in tenant services.

If you are looking for a fine, reasonable apartment in a good location with convenient proximity to colleges and work locations, or if just seeking a great place to live...why not visit or call the office at Hyde Park Estates at your first convenience.
